For Snow Removal Job

Officials Praise Local Public Works

The Arlington Public Works Department was praised Monday night by Town Manager Donald Marquis and Selectman Joseph Greeley, for their snow-removal efforts during recent storms in Arlington.

Town Manager Marquis stated that the public works department did a "tremendous job." He added that 30 out of 120 men were absent from duty during the storms due to illness. The men on duty he said, worked hard, and worked long hours.

Selectmen Greeley stated that the local press and the general public do not actually know what is going on. "We may have the equipment," he said, "but not the core of men to operate it."

Selectman Horace Homer said Monday night that the Town Manager and he toured the Town Sunday for two hours, and reported, "For the most part everything was well under control."

Homer pointed out that residents pull their cars into the road to block their driveway after they have shoveled, and said, "We are crippled when they do this." As a result, residents get a poor job done on their streets.

Chairman of the Board of Selectmen, Arthur Saul, made mention that many residents also shovel snow into the streets. Homer added that this is against the law.

Presents Plans For Student Lounge

Paul Mucci, president of the Arlington High School Student Council, is pictured above as he presented plans for the construction of a student lounge at the high school, to the School Committee Monday night.

While the committee appeared to be in favor of the plan in theory, it was concerned about the method of financing the construction. Committee members were reluctant to have students become involved in raising such a large sum.

As a result, action of the proposal was tabled until the February meeting. In the meantime, the school committee will discuss the possibility of financing such a lounge with the finance committee.

Students estimated the cost of the construction at $3,000-$3,500. They reported that they will raise part or all of the necessary funds.

Count 100 Waiting in Near-Zero Cold

Selectmen Unhappy With Arlington MBTA Service

Arlington selectman Joseph Greeley Monday night lashed out at the MBTA bus service provided in Arlington.

"At the Board of Selectmen's meeting, Greeley said that he was 'very unhappy about the MBTA and its service.' He said that he had visited four bus stops in Arlington at 8 a.m. Monday to find that over 100 passengers had been waiting in near-zero weather for nearly one-half hour for passenger service."

Mr. Greeley said he had visited bus stops along Mass. ave. at Park ave., Brattle st. and Academy st. The commuters Mr. Greeley visited were waiting for transportation on the Arlington Heights-Harvard Square transit line.

The selectman said that he was fortunate enough to have had his own transportation Monday, but added it was unfortunate that many had to wait so long for public transportation on the coldest morning of the year.

He recommended that a strong protest be sent to the MBTA asking that they "restore to Arlington the service we richly deserve."

Chairman of the Arlington Board of Selectmen, Arthur Saul said Monday night that if a change in schedule has been made, "we must protest it vigorously."

Selectmen John Bilafer pointed out at the meeting that he had previously received an anonymous telephone call from a person who allegedly claimed to work for the MBTA, who informed him that service to Arlington would be reduced. As a result, the MBTA was contacted and Arlington officials were assured that this would not happen.

Bilafer also pointed out that he has received complaints from passengers who are unable to board buses heading towards the Heights. MBTA vehicles allegedly pass

New Committee Is Formed

The Arlington Citizens for Democratic Reform held its first meeting at the Calvary Methodist Church Jan. 3.

"The group was formed in response to a wide variety of concerns, among them the war in Vietnam, civil rights, conservation, education reform, and the general failure of the federal, state and local governments to respond realistically to the deep social and political transition our country is now facing."

"While the range of opinion of its members is wide, most of the ACDR is united in the opinion that politics on all levels has tended to be increasingly divorced from the man in the street. Therefore, the ACDR intends to create changes in the current policies of our government by actively participating in government at all levels," according to a release received by this paper.

At the Jan. 3 meeting, a set of by-laws was passed and the following officers were elected: President, Richard Kraus, 100 West Falmouth st.; Vice President, Irvin Doreas, 29 Acton st.; Secretary, Mrs. Marvin Glaser, 31 Bartlett ave.; and Treasurer, Mrs. Reginald Newell, 32 Jason st.

The chairman of the committees on special political campaigns reported that action has begun on three levels.

ACDR will run a slate of delegates to challenge the current Democratic Town

Filing Deadline Near At Hand

Plan Discussion On Home Rule

Will Arlington someday be allowed to determine its own STOP sign locations? Say "no" to a billboard? Will the new Home Rule Amendment actually bring more town self-government? Robert J. M. O'Hare, a governor's appointee to the Home Rule Commission, will shed some light on these questions for Arlington citizens on Jan. 22 at 8 p.m. in Robbins Junior Library Hall.

Mr. O'Hare, Director of the Boston College Bureau of Public Affairs, and an authority on local governments, will discuss the current responsibilities of the Special Commission on the Implementation of Home Rule. This body was set up by the state to study and recommend changes in existing laws to bring them

Five candidates have taken out papers for Housing Authority and another five for School Committee with only two weeks left before the final date for filing papers with the Registrars of Voters.

Meanwhile, no one has taken out papers for the one spot on the Board of Selectmen. Arthur D. Saul, Jr. is the incumbent office holder.

Taking out papers for the School Committee contest were incumbents Doris M. Cremens and John P. Morine. Also taking out papers were Martin D. Haske, Jr., 11 Old Colony lane, Albert Woodin, 18 Highland ave., and Richard Leibowitz, 42 Ashland st.

Incumbent Velma E. Brown had not taken out papers at press time.

Taking out papers for the Housing Authority race were incumbent Edward J. Doherty, John F. Cusack, James

A. Coffey, William O. Bercurry and Joseph S. Daly. The number of candidates taking out papers for the Town Clerk's post remained at two, John J. Stanton and Mary Farrington.

Ann Powers is the present Clerk, but will not seek reelection.

Incumbent Town Moderator Lawrence E. Corcoran has taken out papers for that post.

Incumbent Walter S. Coolidge, Jr., is the only candidate having taken out papers for Assessor.

IBM System O.K. For March

Secretary of State John F. X. Davoren has informed Arlington officials that the IBM Automatic system of electronic voting has not been approved for unlimited use, but that approval for its use has been extended to the Town for the March election only.

The State Secretary also in-

Students Learn About Drugs

The second of a series of programs to inform the students on the subject of drugs and drug abuse was presented at Arlington High School on Jan. 4.

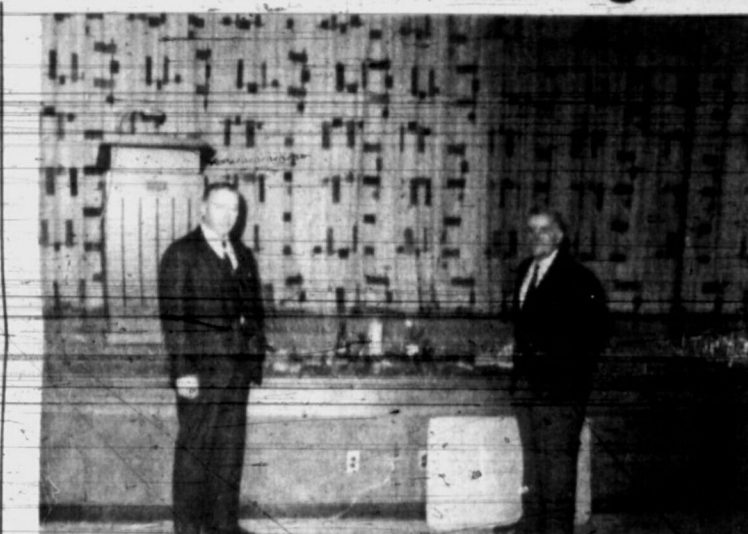

Dr. Lawrence Anderson, Assistant Superintendent of Schools, introduced the guest speaker, Captain Joseph M. Jordan, Commanding Officer of the Vice Control Unit of the Boston Police Department, a member of the International Narcotic Enforcement Officers Association, and the Drug Addiction Rehabilitation Board of Massachusetts.

He lectures at the Boston Police Department Training Academy, the Cambridge Police Department In-Training Academy, and has been interviewed by the press and on radio and television programs.

As the father of five children, he is interested in youth and its problems.

Captain Jordan stressed the fact that the problem of narcotics, once a concern of large cities, has moved out to the residential areas of suburban and has grown considerably during the past two and one-half to three years.

Captain Jordan said it was formerly easy to identify a heroin addict. Authorities knew how he looked, where he lived, how old he was and how to find him. He was probably a criminal first. His only concern was when he could see his next shot of heroin. He lived like an animal and had lost his sense of judgment and his dignity as an individual.

Cap. Jordan emphasized that permissiveness has caused an increase in drug usage today. It received its impetus when Dr. Timothy Leary began his experiments at Harvard with marijuana and LSD.

Storing Our Snow

An old fashioned winter is what we have. No, that isn't exactly true. An old fashioned winter was one in which we were supposed to have had many big snowstorms and bitter cold.

Yet strange as it may seem all the records of individual snow depths for a year and for successive large storms have been established within the past 20 years—beginning with the record snowy year of 1947-48.

So maybe those snowstorms that took place 30, 40 and 50 years ago or longer which were so big and have grown bigger with the advancing years weren't so big after all and maybe they just seem that way because of the lack of proper equipment to remove the snow.

After all the single horse power which plowed the snow, especially on sidewalks can't compare with the big trucks of today.

Yet again maybe that lack of plowing power is why we think of the past couple of weeks as a throwback to the old-fashioned winter, because roads weren't plowed the way Arlingtonians feel they should be plowed.

In many cases the streets were narrow, the corners were not cleared off and the ruts were deep.

Evidently from the general talk on the street and from some of the complaints heard around town, the plowing was less than the best.

So we blame "town hall". Who else?

Yet there is someone else to blame—or something else to blame too—and that is progress—the very thing which would have taken us away from the old fashioned plowing may be leading us right back into it again.

The progress we are talking about is the automobile. The increase in the number of vehicles in the state in the past 20 years is almost beyond belief.

THE BLAME IS WHERE? Not only does every family now seem to own a car, but many have two and in some cases three.

And all this has contributed to the conditions of the Arlington streets during snowstorms.

Take the average worker with a car.

He leaves in the morning after a heavy snowfall, digging out part of his driveway—just enough to move the car out.

The snow continues throughout the day.

Mr. "Average" comes home at night and to and behold his driveway is "yeh-high" with snow. So he parks in front of his house.

The plow comes around and has to squeeze around his car.

After supper he comes out and shovels his driveway, but by that time the ruts have deepened in the street by cars dodging around his car.

Multiply this by the many Mr. "Averages" around town, and soon there is confusion and ruts and frayed tempers, unhappy snow removal workers and unhappy car-owners.

In many cases we must blame the car-owners for just saying "so what" when they find their driveway plowed in. They leave their cars to block someone else and the snow removal crew.

In other cases we must blame the operators of the plows for just doing what is easiest, and in other cases we must blame the town for not getting out and plowing earlier to keep ahead of the oncoming snow before situations can arise which make everyone unhappy.

Yet most of all we are a victim of progress and the vicious cycle.

Cars and more cars with no facilities to park them properly when the snow comes—and drivers of these who are just too lazy in many cases to get their cars off the streets during a storm—and they are the first to "scream" about the high taxes and "lousy" plowing job when their little nook and corner of town is not cleaned up properly because they did not get their cars off the street.

A Bright Future

Arlington has had its share of fine clubs and organizations throughout the years—certainly many who have contributed greatly to the history and advancement of the community.

During the past year yet another such group has made marked strides in the community.

A year ago at this time the Arlington Jaycees were just getting started.

An active organization the members have done their utmost to keep up with a number of functions to help the town during the past year.

Hats off to them, and may the future be ever as bright.

To the Editor: Dear Sir: I would like to pay a few words in regard to the Advocate's article "No Progress on Great Meadows Plan" printed December 21.

It seems to me that after so many years of controversy, a decision should have been reached long ago concerning this valuable tract of land. I have read with dismay several articles advocating that the tract be made into a golf course. Imagine a piece of land that size available only to golfers with the funds and leisure time to enjoy the pastime. Little regard would be made of the general public and their posterity if this plan were followed. I think it most important to think of our posterity. Would they be proud that we left them a golf course which for one reason

COLLINS CORNER

How often do we hear the expression "that time changes all, and it is true, but lately even a week makes a difference, as witness we warm folks watching the football game in Green Bay, and the fans looked like they were attending a masquerade, or a Halloween Party with their incongruous masks to ward off the cold.

The Sunday we witnessed another game in Miami, where we were told the players were being weakened by the intense heat, and that many players of the Los Angeles team were suffering from frost bite because of the zero temperature at the game the week before.

And so from this house surrounded with icicles the writer would love to wander around the estate and be carried in because of heat exhaustion.

So with the topic of the day off the mind 'leave us' take a gander at the picture of the day on this page. This is the corner of Mystic st. in 1919 and one may notice the street car tracks that were used by the cars running from Arlington to Winchester and Stoneham.

It was a one track affair with switches at about the entrance to what is now known as the Morningside section, and another on Church st., Winchester.

Upstairs in this block was the Knights of Columbus Hall, and the Restaurant at one time was owned by 'Mike' Horrigan and the coach of the high school baseball and football teams Fred 'Pie' Long.

Next door was the plumbing establishment of Commander Knowles, who was the last G.A.R. man to pass away in Arlington.

In fact when he died, and was buried in Mt. Pleasant cemetery his wish was that the Legion band play a fast marching tune as they left the grave, and it was carried out.

And next door was an establishment that really could be put in the Smithsonian Institute, or the Hall of Fame for "Great Waiting Rooms".

This was, as the sign states a Waiting Room, but it also was the place to go for thousands of kids in town.

Mr. Sprague did a tremendous business with the youth, and had all types of candy from a penny up to a nickel.

The five cent bag was the biggest this side of (well you name it) and a bag of those 'suckers' would last a couple of weeks.

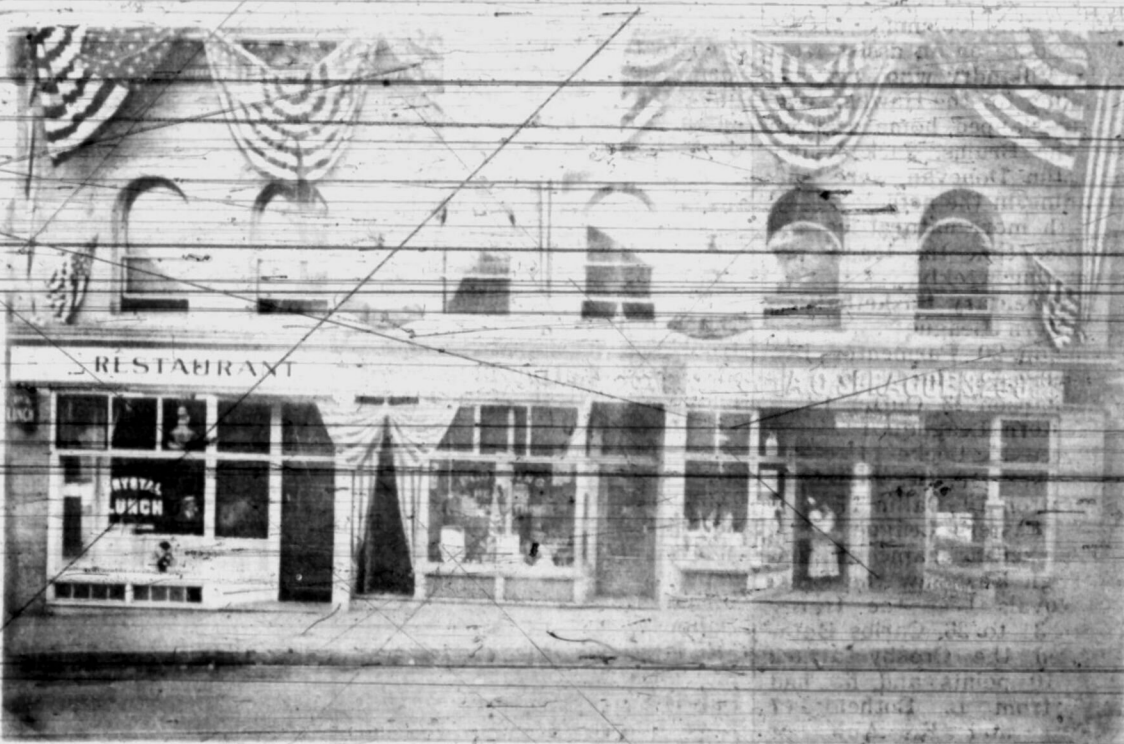

In fact some of the pieces lasted so long 'Junior' put them in his pocket so he could eat his supper, and after the meal would pick off the threads from his blue serge pants and continue the sucking.

Every penny given to Mr. Sprague, who was near-sighted, was closely scrutinized before he sold his merchandise. It seems some lads had come into some Canadian money brought over from the old country via Canada, and would try to slip a shilling or two over on the 'old man' but his eyes were never that bad that he couldn't detect the 'phony'.

He was, as one looks back a good merchandiser, as he cornered the market on ice cream cones, where for a nickel one would receive a 'double header' vanilla, or strawberry, or vice versa all for the sum of half a dime, which was given a 'once over' that would have put a counterfeit inspector to shame.

Yes, as stated above time changes all, but a boy or girl who reads this and remembers it can never remember a January such as we are now freezing with, and years later the kids of today will be telling their youngsters about the terrible storms and temperature of January, 1968.

Do You Remember?

Talk Around Town

What would we talk about if there were no changes in weather over the year?

What a dull world it would be.

Meet someone on a bus and what would you say?

"It looks like rain."

"Hot, isn't it?"

"We've been waiting for this for a long time, haven't we?"

Yes sir without weather we'd need an impossible dream to keep things going and be able to make small talk about something.

Anyone who read last week's paper and listened to Radio Station WCAS knows by now that Arlington voters will be going to the polls to vote by the electronic system this year.

Actually this is quite a step.

It all sounds a bit complicated now, no doubt for the thousands of voters who have been marking their "X" beside the names of their choice for the last many years.

It marks the end of another era in the community and must bring back nostalgic memories for many.

There is probably little doubt that the all-night wait for final results of the election will be a thing of the past in Arlington.

No more crowd outside the counter at the Clerk's office until early-early in the morning or on some occasions after sunrise.

No more groups at the headquarters of the various candidates waiting for the moment of joy and doom.

The results should be in early now.

A central tabulation area will be set up where votes will be electrically counted.

Many of the workers who used to count into the early hours of the morning will no longer have to do so.

Their work will be done for them.

There will be a machine available at each precinct and two election officers on hand to help those who aren't quite sure how the new operation works.

It looks like a step ahead, and what better time than during a town election when such a large segment of the population of the community turns out.

We're looking ahead with interest. How about you?

That Man About Town

Never before has one subject so completely dominated a community as has the snow and cold weather of the past three weeks.

Last week it was the big snow storm which MAT wrote about that caused the residents of the community to be unhappy.

This week it was the continuation of this snow, plus record-shattering temperatures which held the public eye.

There evidently was some comment about the column last week but MAT was just being a sounding board for the residents of the community.

The plowing of the first big storm was not of the best.

Who was responsible is not known.

But there were "lots of gripes".

However, the plowing of the storm of last Sunday was much better.

In fact it almost seems that some of the snow not plowed off some of the streets during the first big storm was cleaned up the second time around.

The importance of cleaning up "real well" after a heavy wet storm such as the first one we had cannot be stressed too strongly.

If things aren't cleaned up properly the first time around and cold weather continues then everyone is in trouble if second and third storms develop, as did happen.

Maybe we learned a lesson.

The subject which has caused residents to be "up-in-arms" this week, at least the MBTA commuters, is the service.

Selectmen Monday night

Town Meeting Vacancies

According to information released this week by Town Clerk Ann Powers there are 87 town meeting member vacancies to be filled at the coming Annual Town Election to be held on Saturday, March 2.

Of this number, 80 are for the usual three-year vacancies resulting from the expiration of the terms of one third of the total number town meeting members. In addition, there are seven vacancies for one and two-year unexpired terms of town meeting members who have resigned, moved, passed away, etc.

MAT had heard about the service before the Selectmen's meeting Monday night, and had also heard complaints that school children had been by-passed while waiting for buses.
January 24	A strong protest was to be sent to the MBTA asking that the utility "restore to Arlington the service we richly deserve."	Don't we deserve the "most-est with the bestest"? Evidently we're not getting it.

or another might not be available to them? I think not.

Land is the most valuable asset in the country today and think how it will be 100 years from now. Think what it would mean to have an Arlington-Lexington Great Meadows Park, where flora and fauna have remained untouched amid the suburban sprawl which will grow over the years. We would be derelict in our reasoning if a plan like this were not considered.

We are honored by having some of the Commonwealth's best conservation and wildlife experts residing in our town. Surely these people could devise a plan to give us an historic park which would insure us and our children a glimpse of the natural New England countryside in a suburban area.

As a resident here for over 35 years I am proud of the parks and fields that this town has established. In recent years our Tree Warden and Park Department have done a fantastically good job on beautifying our streets and business areas. Can you imagine what they could do with 178 acres? People come from the world over to visit Thorpe's Woods. I think that Arlington's and Lexington's residents would be interested in visiting the Great Meadows in its natural state. The $20,000 suggested appropriation to "study the land" could be used to start the first foot paths through the area.

No one can say if we'll need a golf course 100 years from now, but we will need the trees, grass, birds, animals and water the Great Meadows Park could give us.

Sincerely,

George McKinley

Coach Frah Foley of St. Mary's of Cambridge, a local resident and Mike Sheehan another localite who attends St. Mary's were the big factors in St. Mary's 71-59 win over Arlington Catholic. Mike has been Foley's leading scorer since his freshman year and is sought-after by many of the top college basketball coaches.

Dick McBride, the Somerville High hockey captain who plays with many of the Arlington High players in the off-season had three goals against Medford Saturday evening though his team lost 6-3.

The AHS track team failed to win a first against Brockton and lost 73-13.

Brockton took all three places in the mile. Mike Ceurveles had a third in the 1000. Mike Accardi a third in the 600. and Ed Murray a third in the 300.

Richard Devana finished third in the two mile and Marty Toczykowski placed second in the dash with Paul Wedge third.

George Anastas gave Arlington a second in the hurdles and Mark Sullivan a third in the high jump. John Pittino scored a third in the shot. Brockton and Somerville have four wins in Division 2 and Arlington and Watertown have two wins and two losses.

The Arlington High track team will compete in the BAA Interscholastics at the Boston Garden this Saturday.

The Notre Dame Grammar School of Springvale, Me., will play a ten game schedule in the York County Junior High basketball league. The team is coached by Anthony Lalicata, a local boy who played his high school ball for Coach George Lowder, and his college ball at St. Francis.

A similar program in the grammar schools here would be a big boom to local high school basketball.

At the Touchdown Club meeting tonight at Fantasia's Restaurant a former member of the Baltimore Colts football team will be the speaker.

Two ex-Boston College football, and present Patriots players Art Graham of Arlington and Jim Whelan of Cambridge have leased a chalet at North Conway for the rest of the winter.

The big take-in for the baseball fans at the Sportsman's Show are the appearance of Sox star Carl Yastrzemski and the World Series films. The show ends this Saturday night.

Jay Connors is the top scorer for Coach Jack Cusack's Xavier High hockey team. Jay scored his 11th and 12th goals last week against Austin.

The Charles River Power Squadron will begin a free boating course starting this Monday night at Rindge Technical High, Cambridge, at 7:30 p.m.

The course teaches basic boating information and water safety. Interested parties can call Robert Richardson at 862-1402.

Jackie Cahill the fine left wing of the Matignon High school hockey team is another local boy playing for an out-of-town school. Jack's dad a rabid hockey fan is an officer in the local fire department.

The Greater Boston Pee Wee's edged Needham in a real close game at the Skating Club last week. Kevin O'Quinn, Girard Garcia and Steve Maskell scored the goals in the team's first win of the New Year.

Durable Jim Ringo the great center of the Philadelphia Eagles has played in 132 consecutive game and is the Iron Man of the N.F.L. Joe Callahan of Old Mystic brought Jim here several times to speak at Sport Nights.

Peter Flanagan a defensive specialist, and Bob Baker a halfback are the co-captains of next fall's A.H.S. football team. Pete is a defenseman on the hockey team and Baker is a member of the track team this winter.

It's 16 straight wins for the Arlington V.F.W. hockey team. Richard Cavanaugh and Jack Cusack had a pair of goals with Tom Vincent, Don Cronin and Larry Smith a goal each in the 7-3 win over the Cambridge Royals.

There is night skiing at Blue Hills at the Canton-Milton line on Rt. 135 just South of Boston, and conditions were never better at the nearby ski slope.

Waltham may come up with one of the best recreation sites in the state if the recommendations made by a leading park and recreation consulting firm are followed.

The report already turned in to the city official suggests a ski tow and a 18 hole par three golf course, a children's area and an outdoor theater.

This makes local sport fans wonder if and when we will ever see a development at the "Res" of a pool and skating rink by the M.D.C. and the golf course on the land called the "Great Meadows."

Sunday will be another great day in front of T.V. for many sport fans with the showing of the "Impossible Dream" the story of the Red Sox last season at 1:30 p.m. on channel 5 followed by the Oakland Raiders vs Green Bay Packers football game from Miami at 2:30 p.m.

The three top scorers and big men for Arlington, Casey, O'Leary and Nigro each had three fouls called on them in the first period at Waltham and as a result Nigro was held to five points and Casey four. O'Leary was the only local boy in double figures, while Bonica of Waltham had 19, Adams 14 and Hammond had 10 for a total of 40 points.

This week the boys play undefeated Weymouth at the South Shore school and Watertown here Friday at 3:30 p.m.

Opening Round Of Hoop Loop

Last week marked the opening round of play in four different leagues sponsored by the Park and Recreation Department. Close games were a trademark in all the leagues especially Pee Wee Hockey, Bantam Hockey and Elementary Basketball. If the first weeks play is any indication the 1968 season should be one filled with evenly matched teams playing closely contested games.

Pee Wee Hockey
Due to snow cancelling the first round of games, the Hockey Program began a week late but was filled with chills and excitement.

In Bantam play the results are as follows:
Canadians 4 Maroons 3
Rangers 4 Red Wings 3
In Pee Wee play the results are as follows:

Maple Leafs 2 Rockets 0
Black Hawks 2 Bruins 1

Paced by Mike Shea's three goals, the Canadians edged the Maroons 4-3 in Bantam play. Billy Wright opened the scoring for the Canadians but the Maroons' John Kinney, Ray Hooley, and Steve Sateriale netted scores in an effort which fell short. John Scopu played well for the Canadians and Noel Grayton played well for the Maroons. Paul Martin performed well in the nets.

Scoring three quick goals, the Rangers skated to a big lead but were almost upended by the Red Wings who closed the gap with a three-goal surge near the end of the game. Steve Gould scored first for the Rangers followed by Steve Christopher, assisted by Mick McGuire. Jerry McCarthy scored the last two goals for the Rangers on assists from Bill McKeon (2) and Paul Robinson.

Near the end of the game Jay Driscoll took over for the Red Wings, scoring twice and assisting on Phil Messina's score to make the final score read, Rangers 4 and Red Wings 3.

Steve Blorim performed well for the Wings in a losing cause.

In Pee Wee action the Rockets were blanked by the Maple Leafs 2 to 0. Eddie Shaw scored from the boards on a long shot to put the Leafs in front. Bobby Casslin, after being denied a score by goalie Don Vincent, tallied a pretty goal on Paul Martin, who played well in the net. Playing well for the Rockets were Frank Scopu and Mike Linskey.

The Black Hawks and Bruins staged a thriller 2-1, with the Hawks emerging the victor. Paul Coleman tallied twice, once on an assist from Mike Villandry who was outstanding for the Hawks. Gene Doyle slapped home a score for the Bruins. Jack Kipirny and Jim Donovan were outstanding in the nets.

With more natural ice and practice time the teams are improving weekly.

Ault (4 points). Hardy had a strong game from Larry Paglierani (6 points), Ed Zahka (4 points) and Mike Barsolan (4 points).

ACHS Sextet Outlasts Matignon By 2-1 Score

Underdog Matignon gave favored Arlington Catholic a real battle before going down to defeat 2-1 last week. Matignon had a 2-2 record going into the game while Coach John Carney's boys had won four in a row.

In Wednesday's game at the Arena, MacCauley put Arlington Catholic out in front with a first period goal at the five minute mark. Shea and Coleman had assists on the score:

Matignon battled back and showing plenty of hustle as it tied the game at one all early in the final period.

Midway in the period Mike Curry's unassisted goal broke the tie and was enough to give Arlington Catholic its fifth win and a tie for the top with Marian and Xaverian.

Sunday afternoon Arlington Catholic was unable to score against Xaverian and dropped to third place in the league standing.

Marian edged Matignon 1-0 to stay in a tie for the top with Xaverian.

Xaverian scored a single tally in the opening period and one in the second.

Three goals in the final period shutout A.C. 5-0. The local club has to face Marian with a 6-0 record next Sunday.

(4 points) and Driscoll led the surge for Locke. The Brackett Nationals had little trouble in beating St. James 19-4 as Jay Colley (6 points) and John Conroy (6 points) led the Brackett surge. The Stratton Celtics had a big first half as they beat the Dalling Pistons 19-17. Hodge (8 points), Pellegrino (5 points) and Staples (4 pts) led the Stratton team while Richardson had 15 points for Dalling.

THANKS

That our boys in Vietnam do most certainly appreciate the things people are doing for them back here in the states is indicated by the following letter from a local man.

The letter was sent to the mothers and wives of World War II Club of Arlington by P. F. C. Ronald Oley.

"I want to thank you all first of all for taking an interest in those men from our Town of Arlington who are serving in Vietnam.

"Secondly, I again thank you for your card and gift attached.

"Although American currency cannot be used here, your gift will be a reminder for me that there are those back home who think of us here in Vietnam.

"Many people don't realize just what a card or letter can do for a G.I. here in Vietnam. Whether he knows the people of his town or not, the fact is, he knows someone back there thinks of him once in a while. Again I thank you and encourage you to keep up your token of good will."

Teenage Dance

The annual teenage dance sponsored by the Young Adult Committee for the March of Dimes has grown.

The Arlington band "Mondo's Prophet" and the "Jack and the Spades" (formerly known as The Rogues) of Everett and Revere will be on hand this time.

Last year's dance was a complete sellout and unfortunately some people had to be turned away at the doors because of fire laws at the Town Hall.

This year the dance will be held at the Junior High West, Jan. 20.

Tickets will be sold in homes (before school) and in the cafeteria (after school).

A Word Of Thanks

The following letter was received recently by the Arlington Board of Selectmen, from Capt. Francis X. Brennan, presently serving in Vietnam. Capt. Brennan was one of several Arlington servicemen to receive Christmas greetings from the local Board.

Dear Gentlemen:

I would like to thank you for your thoughtfulness expressed in your recent letter. It is indeed a pleasure to know that Americans at home are thinking about those of us unable to enjoy the holiday festivities in our beloved country.

American soldiers here in Vietnam are presently enjoying a twenty-four hour cease fire and are looking forward to Christmas dinner with all the trimmings.

As for myself, presently I consider myself extremely fortunate for I command a rifle company in a line battalion.

My company is the oldest rifle company presently serving in Vietnam and the only rifle company of my brigade that has had a medal of honor winner of World War II. It is a proud unit made up of the youth of America. In the company there are soldiers from the majority of the states, Guam, Puerto Rico and one even from Denmark. Their pride stems mainly from the job they accomplish day after day here in Vietnam.

Contrary to the belief of some in the states, American soldiers are well aware of the facts concerning our presence here. Each day as we move through the rice paddies from village to village and from one strategic hamlet to the next these representatives of the youth of America see the price the Vietnamese people are paying for freedom.

Indeed, war is not a very pleasant business, yet the G. I. does not complain about his personal suffering or hardships. He knows, all too well, that the communist doctrine is difficult to rout, so he willingly endures these hardships for freedom's sake.

After spending fifteen months here in Vietnam, I assure you the Vietnamese people definitely welcome and appreciate our country's help. Each day I have seen this on their faces and in their deeds and actions. The cause we are presently fighting for and unfortunately some of us dying for, is a just one. No matter what the price maybe the end result will be worth the sweat, blood and tears. Your American soldiers here understand all of this and are willing to pay the ultimate price if need be in order to bring freedom to the Vietnamese people.

My sincere best wishes to each and all of you and may the new year bring peace and happiness to all.

Sincerely yours,
Francis X. Brennan
Captain, Infantry

Your PHARMACIST SPEAKS

H. R. Partamian, D.S., Reg. 17.

Ordinary warts are not dangerous, and almost all of us have them at one time or another. About half of these warts will eventually disappear even if untreated. The wart is a viral infection of the skin and ordinary warts are not malignant and do not become so. Adults are less likely to have warts than children. In folklore, warts are treated by tying knots in a string, rag or ribbon to equal the number on the skin. Another method is to count out beans or peas to the exact number. Is this kind of suggestive therapy effective? Well, it seems to be, as long as the patient firmly believes the cure will work!

The most effective way to cure common warts is to follow doctor's orders and take the proper medication. All of your prescriptions can be filled at RAWSON PHARMACY, 201 Broadway. Call 648-1931 for free prescription pickup and delivery.

THIS WEEK'S HOUSEHOLD HINT - Put a handful of salt in cold water and soak clothing in for half an hour before washing. This will keep non-fast colors from fading. The salt sets the color.

Candidate

Doris M. Cremens (Mrs. Charles Cremens), 64 Mt. Vernon st., announced her candidacy for re-election to a second term as a member of the Arlington School Committee with the following statement:

"Three years ago I sought support from the voters of Arlington to represent them on the Arlington School Committee. They granted me this privilege, and now I am seeking the opportunity to continue the representation which I feel parents, teachers, and other taxpayers want and deserve. I have felt committed to establishing greater communication between all members of our community and their elected School Committee.

"Problems facing public education today are numerous and complex. We must continually assess programs, facilities, and personnel procedures to keep abreast of changes, but only with due regard for ever increasing taxes. Long range building programs must not only accommodate a growing student population, but also must meet the needs of expanded programs and increasing requirements of other facets of our community for use of school buildings after school hours. The need for curricula revision has been established that we may enable each child—average and exceptional—to reach his potential, academically and vocationally. Meaningful guidance and other special programs must provide assistance to our children in coping with the extreme pressures from all sides of our society. Leadership and support for sound personnel procedures, programs, and policies must be an integral part of a school committee's work.

"I hope that the people of Arlington will consider that my background, training, and experience qualify me to serve a second term as their School Committee member. "I am a graduate of Girls' Latin School and Boston University, a former Director of Federated Girls' Clubs and a former Administrative Assistant at an Air Force Research Laboratory. My husband is Charles Cremens, a Director in the Cambridge Public Schools. We have three children—Karen, a graduate of Arlington High school and a sophomore at the University of New Hampshire; Susan, a Junior at Arlington High school; and Charles, Jr., in the eighth grade at the Junior High West. The major part of my time for many years has been devoted to children, their education and their recreational activities. I have served as Girl Scout Leader for seven years, an active member of the Arlington Citizens for Youth, and a Cub Scout worker. I have been particularly involved in town-wide Parent-Teacher activities.

"Since my election to the School Committee I have been active in the Massachusetts Association of School Committees. I am particularly proud to have received the Community Service Award from the Greater Boston Association for Retarded Children and most recently to have been appointed to the Mental Retardation Services Advisory Committee of the Mystic Valley Area Board.

"Open lines of communication between Arlington citizens and their school system and the very best education to prepare our youth for living will continue to be my goals.

Retarded Group Meets

Because of cold and snow, the January meeting of the Arlington Chapter of the Greater Boston Association for Retarded Children will be held Jan. 15, at 8 p.m. at the Library of the Junior High Industrial Arts, Academy st.

The guest speaker will offer a discussion on mentally retarded children and other children in the community. Mrs. Ruth Dooley, special class teacher in Westwood, and author of the book, "Our Jimmy," will be the guest speaker.

Mrs. Dooley who holds an AB degree from Wheaton College and an EdM from Northeastern University, says it took her two years to write "Our Jimmy" because she "had to get into the mind of a child."

For many years, Mrs. Dooley has observed the impatience and sometimes cruelty other children have displayed toward the retarded because of lack of understanding, and this made her determined to try to find a way to help normal children understand the "special boys and girls" and to help members of a retarded family to appreciate the unique role of a "special" son or daughter in their lives.

"Our Jimmy" is a story of a mentally retarded boy and his family. It is a book children can read by themselves or which may be used as a "read-aloud" book for the family. The book has met with great success and praise has flowed in from parents, friends, and teachers.

This GBARC meeting of Jan. 15 is open to all.

TRANSFER FUNDS

Two Million

Registrar Richard E. McLaughlin has announced that 1968 registrations processed through the end of December 1967, exceeded the two million mark creating an all-time record.

In releasing this information, the Registrar stated that this was the largest number of motor vehicles registered prior to January 1 for the ensuing year in the history of the Commonwealth.

"We are proud of the teamwork and unstinting devotion which Registry of Motor Vehicles employees exhibited during the rush of business in regular office hours and during many additional tedious hours after the close of the business day. Their efforts in processing the deluge of last-minute 1968 registrations in the last two weeks of 1967 make it possible to complete the enormous registration task in time for the New Year."

"The unusual volume of registrations persists and harried employees who gave up their day off before the New Year are back on the job to continue to serve the motoring public."

With an approximate saving of 270 calories per serving, it's a tempting way to keep the dieter in the Christmas spirit for months thereafter. ## Pay Out $157,444,000

The Veterans Administration paid out in 1967 an estimated $157,444,000 in compensation and pension benefits to 174,000 Massachusetts veterans or their survivors, the Veterans Administration Office in Boston announced recently.

Included in this estimate are increased pension and Vietnam era wartime disability compensation payments provided by the Veterans' Pension and Readjustment Assistant Act signed by the President last August. VA said.

Of the estimated $7 billion of all expenditures nationally in 1967, approximately $245,300,000 was expended in Massachusetts, VA explained. (An actual state-by-state count of the veteran population and of VA expenditures by major programs on a fiscal year basis will be available and released in 1968.)

Compensation and pension benefits for approximately 4.8 million American veterans or survivors account for nearly $14 billion of the $7 billion total of expenditures this past year.

The next highest VA expenditure in 1967 was for hospital and medical services. To care for ill and disabled veterans in its 166 hospitals and 262 outpatient clinics in 1967, VA spent more than $1.3 billion.

VA payments for insurance and indemnities in 1967 totaled nearly $890 million.

Education and training expenditures were the next highest item in the VA's budget this past year. Under this program, which cost approximately $320 million, about 468,000 veterans went to high school, college or post-graduate school, or received on-the-job farm, apprenticeship or flight training in 1967. Additionally, some 37,000 children of veterans who died from a service-connected disability or who are permanently and totally disabled as a result of military service received about $33 million in educational assistance this past year.

The G.I. loan programs, boosted by the participation of Post-Korean and Vietnam era veterans who accounted for more than four-fifths of the loans, were strong in 1967. VA guaranteed approximately 200,000 loans with a face value of nearly $3.4 billion in 1967. This past year VA also made slightly more than 12,000 direct loans valued at nearly $150 million.

As in past years, the cost for administering VA's $7 billion programs of veterans benefits and services was less than three per cent of its total budget.

ELECTED

Mrs. Norman Cronin of Arlington has been elected Public Relations Chairman of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Baptist Home of Mass.

Five professional nitpickers criticize the Javelin.

"Javelin is a world apart from the other ponycars in styling, comfort, space and features...the car turned and cornered as if it were nailed to the road...Nearly every interior dimension is larger than its competitors, and three in the full width back seat is a reality...Performance of our test car was just short of surprising...Too few cars have brakes equal to the optional front disc/rear drum power units on the Javelin."

—Motor Trend, January, 1968

"BRAND NEW IMAGE BUSTER...transmission responds well to hard active operation and the synchromesh is all but flawless...driving the Javelin is an interesting and satisfying experience...the ability to bring a howl from the rear wheels in any of the lower gears is undeniably exciting...the Javelin has a lot of things going for it..."

—Car Life, December, 1967

"AN EXCITING-NEW SPORTSTER...A real racy-looking car...shows up well on the road-handling course...fun to drive..."

particularly liked the action of the optional powersteering...The Javelin reacts almost the same at high speed as it does during low speed maneuvers."

—Popular Science Monthly, September, 1967

"AN AMERICAN DREAM...seat is surprisingly soft...On long series of tight right and left hand curves, the quick response the time it took to go from one steady state to another, was pleasantly impressive...Javelin's brakes were all we could want...optional heavy duty suspension and wide tread tires really work wonders...you could feel and even control the point at which tire adhesion gave way..."

—Hot Rod Magazine, December, 1967

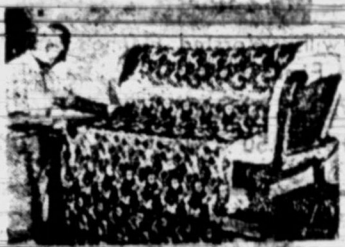

"FRONT END OF JAVELIN IS MEAN LOOKING...Fresh, clean lines and a luxurious interior...interior appointments very comfortable and well laid-out...visibility forward is excellent...has a lot more legroom than is generally associated with pony cars..."

—Motorcade, November, 1967

Go Italian With Frozen Fries

There's really no reason to save frozen French fries for snacks and hamburgers when you could be making Potatoes Italia. The frozen fries are layered and baked in a well-seasoned onion cheese custard that's velvety smooth with the exciting flavor of Cheddar and shredded Parmesan. The casserole is excellent served as the main entrée with a fruit and greens salad, crisp relishes and steaming bowls of soup. You'll find it goes well with meat balls, too, or plump Italian sausages.

Potatoes Italia
3 large onions, thinly sliced
1/4 cup butter
8 eggs
1 1/2 cups grated sharp Cheddar cheese
1/2 cup milk
1/4 cup chopped parsley
1 teaspoon basil flakes
1/2 teaspoon garlic salt
Dash pepper
1 1/2 pound or 1 1/4 pound package frozen French fried potatoes
1 cup shredded Parmesan cheese
Cook onions in butter until soft, but not brown. Beat eggs slightly and combine with cheese, milk, parsley, basil, garlic salt and pepper. Arrange potatoes in a 9x9x2 inch baking pan; top with onions and butter. Pour egg mixture over all; sprinkle with Parmesan cheese. Bake at 350 degrees for 50 minutes, or until set. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

The Snow Was Here — The Snow Was There — And Everywhere

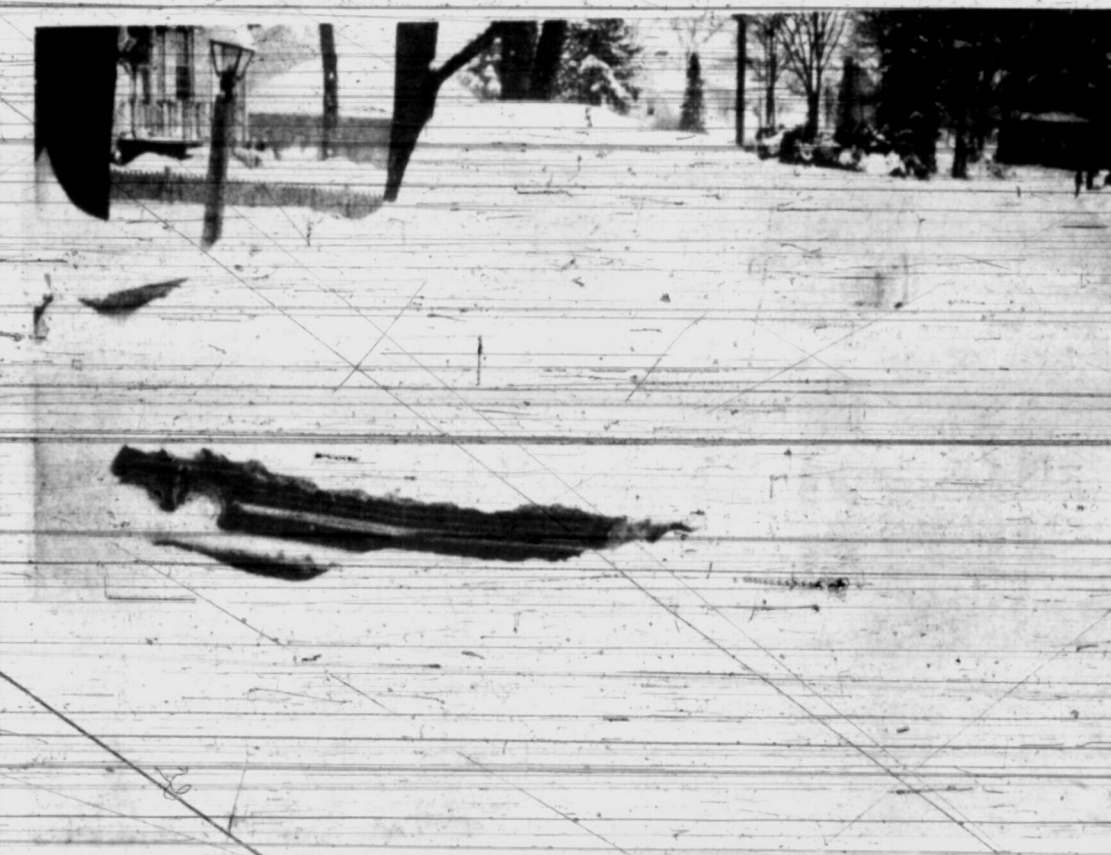

No, the photographer was not stooped down when this picture was taken. It's just a sample of the snow which had to be cleared around Town. Picture was taken at the rear of the Arlington National Bank Building.

Water seeping through the road in front of the Post Office on Court st. added to the woes of the Town workers, who have been working around the clock to battle snow and parked cars during the past two weeks.

The kids enjoyed the snow—no one else did—as these youngsters are pictured ready for someone to give them a ride on a snowmobile.

This was a typical scene in Arlington on almost any day during the past two weeks. Underside all the white was a car. Picture was taken in Hedge rd. area.

Leo Speaker at Elks Banquet

The Arlington Catholic team topped all the schools and received a first place team trophy.

The best speaker for the day chosen unanimously was Kevin Meskel, 68.

Kevin Meskel and Michael Gallagher, a sophomore, qualified in points for participation in the Nationals to be held in Chicago in April.

This is the second C.Y.O. oratorical tournament for this season and Arlington Catholic has taken both.

STUDENTS RELEASED

Students at Arlington High school were released from classes after first period Wednesday as a result of heating problems in the school.

School officials expect operation to be resumed by this morning (Jan. 11).

Boston football legend at age 21.

In fact a Boston newspaper recently selected the 5-11, 175-pounder as one of the top 10 athletes produced in Greater Boston over the last 35 years.

Bobby, the 1966 Bulger Lowe Trophy winner as New England's top college football player, earned the reputation both as a schoolboy and collegian.

He was All-Scholastic half-back at Everett High school, where he scored a record 134 points as a junior to lead his team to a post-season game in Miami's Orange Bowl. Sidelined most of his senior season with a shoulder injury, he returned to score five touchdowns in his final game for Everett—where he won pine letters and was class president three times.

Leo has become a Greater able mention honors as a rusher, passer, pass-receiver and punt and kickoff return artist.

Bobby scored 17 touchdowns for 102 points to rank sixth among all-time Harvard scorers, and is only the second Crimsonite to score against rival Yale in all three varsity meetings. In fact Leo scored the winning touchdown over the Elis in both his sophomore and junior seasons, and scored twice against the Blue as a senior.

Bobby's 6.4 yards-per-carry rushing average as a senior is a Harvard single-season record, as is his career 5.5-yard mark. Leo's 1,629-yard career rushing total is second only to Dick Clabby's 1,820 in modern Harvard history.

Coach John Yovicsin sums Leo's career at Cambridge by labelling Bobby as "the greatest back I ever coached."

Leo, a bachelor, was a social relations major at Harvard and plans a future in law.

Sets Records

Leo set a number of records at Harvard while winning All-East, All-New England, All-Ivy and All-America honor.

The youngsters in the fifth grade class, taught by Mr. Richard Shaughnessy at the Cutter School recently entertained other classes by putting on a play based on a German Christmas Folk Tale. Among those taking part were Susan Garrity, Robin

Airlift Service

Upon payment of a fee of $1.00 per parcel, in addition to postage at regular SURFACE rates, parcels weighing not more than 30 pounds or exceeding 60 inches in length and 60 inches combined, which are mailed at or addressed to any overseas military post office outside the 48 contiguous States will be given airlift service. These parcels should be marked in large letters PAL (parcel air lift) immediately below the postage and above the name of the addressee.

Postmaster Ephraim Martin emphasized that there is no charge in the airlift service for parcels not exceeding 5 pounds on which a $1.00 fee is NOT paid. These are known as SAM parcels (space available mail).

The postmaster stated that there are plenty of one-cent stamps on hand for the general public to be used with 5-cent stamps on hand to conform to the new 6-cent rate which went into effect last Sunday, January 7th. Secretaries of clubs and organizations should check with their local post offices to ascertain the new rates before mailing their next meeting notices or other matter.

Special Exhibit At The Library

A special exhibit illustrating the great variety of evergreens and showing how to identify them may now be seen in the Robbins Junior Library at 700 Massachusetts Ave. in Arlington.

The display, appropriate to the current season, was arranged by Miss Nancy Hagg, Special Teacher of Natural Science in the Arlington Elementary Schools.

Described and labeled are sample pieces of about a dozen actual kinds of evergreens including larch, white pine, pitch pine, Scotch pine, red pine, yew, hemlock, spruce, and balsam fir.

The latter is one of the most frequently used for Christmas trees in New England.

A specially interesting feature of the exhibit is a "Conifer Key" which shows how to identify various kinds of evergreens by their leaves and the way these grow.

The exhibit may be seen through January whenever the Junior Library is open. Regular hours in that division are 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., Mondays through Saturdays except on holidays.
